HER BOILER EXPLODES

THE CITY OF TRENTON TOTALLY
WRECKED NEAR TORRES-
DALE, PA.

FIRE ADDS TO THE HORROR

Vessel Quickly Run Ashore and Sinks
In Shallow Water—Eleven Bodies
Have Been Recovered and It Is
Feared More of Her Passengers and Crew Are in the Boat—Cause of the Disaster Unknown.

Philadelphia, Aug. 29.—While the steamboat City of Trenton of the Wilmington Steamboat company was on her way from this city to Trenton, N. J., her port boiler exploded, killing eleven persons and injuring over a score of others. Four passengers are missing, but as many were taken care of by friends it is thought the missing are among those who did not find it necessary to go to the hospitals.

After the explosion the boat took fire and ran aground. There she lies a wrecked and blackened bulk in the marshes opposite Torresdale, six miles above this city. Her hull is filled with water and it is feared more of her crew and passengers may be found at the bottom of the boat when the water is pumped out.

A boat belonging to the police department is anchored a short distance from the stranded excursion steamer pumping the water from the ill-fated vessel, and members of the police force are on shore ready to send any bodies that may be found to the morgue in this city. The City of Trenton made daily trips between Philadelphia and Trenton, stopping at Burlington, N. J., Bristol, Pa., and other points on the way. She left the company's wharf at 1:45 p. m., 15 minutes behind her schedule time.

Nothing of moment occurred until the boat reached Torresdale, at a point opposite what is known as the Harrison mansion, fronting on the Delaware river at this suburban resort, the steamship connecting with the port barge.

Burst With a Loud Report.

The forward portion of the upper deck was well filled with passengers, while many others were in the cabin. Before any of the passengers or employees had an opportunity for seeking places of safety another explosion occurred and this time the port boiler was rent in twain. Scalding steam and water poured into the cabin and sections of the woodwork of the boat were torn away by the force of the explosion. Those of the passengers who were not seamed and scarred by the scalding steam and boiling water were struck by the flying portions of the splintered cabin. Legs and arms were broken and faces and bodies were parboiled. The screams of the injured could be heard on shore and the cries of those who leaped and were blown into the river were heartrending.

So great was the force of the explosion that a piano in the upper drawing room of the boat was hurled many feet away from the boat into the river. This proved a fortunate circumstance, for many of the injured passengers, thrown into the water, scalded and otherwise injured so that they were rendered helpless, clung to the piano, which had fallen into shallow water, until rescued.

Quickly Ran Ashore.

When the explosions occurred Mate Vanderveer and Pilot Curry were in the pilot house. Both were hurt, by the terrific force of the explosion in the little enclosure. The wheel on the port side began revolving with lightning like rapidity. As a result of this the rudder turned the boat toward shore and she quickly ran ashore, fastening herself in the mud. By this time the vessel had caught fire and those of the passengers who were still on board were compelled to leap for their lives. Fortunately the water was not more than four feet deep and many of the victims of the disaster were able to wade to shore. Some, however, who were too seriously injured to help themselves, were rescued by members of the boat crew, whose houses line the river front at this point. The captain and crew of the boat conducted themselves as heroes. They rendered all the assistance possible to the injured and Captain Worrell was the last man to leave the boat. All of the seriously injured were hastily conveyed to the hospital at the house of correction at Hillsburg, about three miles below Torresdale.

Just what caused the explosion cannot be determined at this time.

AN UNUSUAL REQUEST.

Indians Want Their Reservation
Opened to Public Settlement.

Duluth, Aug. 29.—The Indians of the Fond du Lac reservation, near this city, are asking that the reservation be opened to public settlement. There are about 100,000 acres in this reserve and about 700 Chippewa Indians live there. Nearly every family has taken land in severalty and the reds are living like white men and citizens. It is this that has caused them to make the unusual request that their lands be opened to the whites. All their pine timber has been cut and there is nothing left but hard woods and cedar. In order that their severalty lands be fit for cultivation they must be cleared, but under the law the Indians are unable to sell any of this timber. They cannot, therefore, clear the lands and make farms.

Roosevelt Children Leave Hospital.

New York, Aug. 29.—Alice and Quentin Roosevelt, children of Vice President Roosevelt, who have been sick at Roosevelt hospital, are so much better that they were removed to the home in this city of Douglass Robinson, brother-in-law of Mr. Roosevelt. The vice president and Mrs. Roosevelt are also there.

ASK FOR DAMAGES.

Passengers on the Islander Sue the Navigation Company.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 29.—Nearly two score cases against the Canadian Pacific Navigation company in connection with the wreck of the steamer Islander have been instituted for damages by loss of life, property and injury to health. The cases will be presented in the United States court, which is presumed to have jurisdiction. The cases involve only those who were citizens or natives of the United States.

Peruvian Cabinet Boycotted.

Lima, Peru, Aug. 29.—In the Peruvian senate a motion to impeach the cabinet was defeated by one vote. The cabinet is now boycotted by the chamber of deputies, while the conflict as to the censure passed upon the cabinet continues between that body and the senate.

Spit in the Umpire's Face.

Chicago, Aug. 29.—President Johnson of the American league has announced the expulsion of Pitcher McGinnity of the Baltimore team, his offense being expectorating in Umpire Connolly's face.

On the 3,337th Ballot.

Webster City, Ia., Aug. 29.—The Thirty-seventh district Republican senatorial convention, which met in adjourned session here, nominated Hartshorn of Wright county on the 3,337th ballot.

KEPT IT UP TO THE LAST

M. CONSTANS' STORY OF THE
SULTAN'S ATTEMPTS TO PREVARICATE.

FRANCE'S ACT NECESSARY

Any Other Course Would Be Most Injurious to Future Negotiations. Slightest Success Would Encourage Him to Try the Same Game With Other Powers—The Minister's Real Reason.

London, Aug. 29.—The Daily Mail publishes a dispatch from its Vienna correspondent, who boarded the Orient express and interviewed M. Constans as to the Franco-Turkish diplomatic situation.

"The French ambassador declared," says the correspondent, "that even at the last hour the sultan tried to prevaricate. He asserted that the whole matter was now in the hands of the French government."

"Any other than an inexorable attitude," continued M. Constans, "would be most injurious for future negotiations with the porte. If Turkey could obtain the slightest success in this case she would easily yield to the temptation to try the same game with other powers who might not display the same patience as France has displayed."

"Before M. Constans left Constantinople," says a dispatch to The Standard from the Turkish capital, "he received a letter from the sultan himself begging him to consider his majesty's feelings and not to act in a manner his majesty thought uncalled for. M. Constans declined to alter his decision."

"The British ambassador was invited to the French embassy Sunday night and he remained there until 1 a. m." Monday morning, presumably trying to arrange an amicable settlement. It is freely remarked here that the real reason for the action of M. Constans was his pique at the refusal of the sultan to buy the quays."

GETTING READY TO FIGHT.

Sultan Said to Be Preparing for a
War With France.

Vienna, Aug. 29.—The Tageblatt's Constantinople correspondent says the sultan has declared that he is ready to face a war with France.

The porte, says the correspondent, has ordered 300 German guns for the defense of Salonica and other ports and has ordered the laying of mines at the approaches to the harbors.

The sultan, the correspondent asserts, is day and night planning defenses.

GETS LIFE IMPRISONMENT.

An Alabama Farmer Tried for Lynching
a Negro.

Wetumpka, Ala., Aug. 29.—George Howard has been convicted of murder in the first degree and sentenced to life imprisonment. Howard was a member of the gang which lynched Robert White, a negro, in this county some months ago.

The case was called and a jury was soon impaneled. Upon being sworn Howard related the details of the lynching, admitting his participation therein. He gave the names of the members of the mob, which numbered 13. After being out almost two hours the jury returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree and fixed the penalty at life imprisonment.

Howard is one of the most prominent farmers in this section of the country. White was accused of shooting at a white man.

The cases against John Strength and Martin Fuller, accused of being members of this mob, are now being tried. All others who are alleged to have been members of the mob have left the county.

TO REVISE CONFESSION.

Committee Representing Presbyterian
Assembly Meets at Saratoga.

Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 29.—The committee on the revision of the Westminster confession of faith, representing the general assembly of the Presbyterian church, convened here during the day. Rev. Dr. Minton of San Francisco, who was the moderator of the last general assembly, will preside at the committee's deliberations. In the hands of the three sub-committees were formally placed the separate branches of the subjects assigned them by the general assembly. While the sub-committees may be able to submit their reports or findings as early as next Saturday it is doubtful if they can do so until early next week.

BEATEN BY ROBBERS.

An Aged Couple Near Kilbourn, Wis.,
Roughly Handled.

Baraboo, Wis., Aug. 29.—About 3 a. m. masked robbers entered the house of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lange, who reside near Kilbourn, for the purpose of plunder. They awoke the aged couple, who were alone, and demanded their money. Upon being refused the robbers threatened death, but in the meantime Mrs. Lange managed to escape from the house and gave an alarm. The burglars pounded Mr. Lange until he became unconscious and then left in a carriage drawn by a pair of white horses.

PRESIDENT BURNS' PLAN.

Would Let Men Like Ireland, Potter
and Low Settle the Strike.

Pittsburg, Aug. 29.—Another scheme to settle the steel strike has been launched by President Burns of the Window Glass Workers' association. Mr. Burns proposes an arbitration commission selected from among such men as Archbishop Ireland, Bishop Potter, Seth Low and others of like bulk, who would have the entire matter presented to them by both sides to the controversy, and should have power to settle upon terms for a settlement, their decision to be final. Mr. Burns says he has President Shawer's sanction to the movement, and if the steel corporation people will agree to the plan the strike will be off at once.

President Shaffer said that the strike, notwithstanding the other side's claims to the contrary, is proceeding satisfactorily and the strike is making serious inroads into the corporation's business and that sooner or later it will be forced to terms. His men are firm all along the line and are determined to stand for their rights. He says the few mills that have been started are doing little effective work. The fact that the corporation is adding to its force daily is not worrying the association, as he believes them to be unskilled or poor workmen who will be a drawback rather than a help to the employers. He said no products were being turned out of the mills at work. Actions, he said, speak louder than words.

The latest official announcement from the steel corporation is that the strike can only be settled by the men going back to work. The steel officials say the strike is over so far as dealings with the Amalgamated Association is concerned. They want men for their idle mills and men who want work can have it at the highest wages paid before the shutdown. Whether they have men or not the union can have no say as to the rate of wages.

NEBRASKA REPUBLICANS.

Samuel H. Sedgwick Named for Supreme Court Justice.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 29.—Republicans of Nebraska in state convention nominated a ticket, adopted a platform in harmony with party policies and made a new record for industry in the disposal of the business.

The ticket is as follows: Justice of the supreme court, Samuel H. Sedgwick of York county; regents of the university, Carl J. Ernst of Lancaster, H. L. Gould of Keith.

The platform commends to the judgment of the people the policies and achievements of the national administration, which have brought about unprecedented prosperity and has changed the nation from a debtor to a creditor of the world. It praises the successful conduct of the war with Spain, adding new glory to the flag. It notes the "suppression of a wicked and unjustifiable conspiracy and insurrection against the sovereignty of our nation in the Philippines and establishing there the principles upon which the popular government and equality of right depend." It also notes the lead taken by the United States in the settlement of difficulties in China, which "adds new lustre to the brilliant history of American diplomacy." The right of labor to organize is recognized. It deprecates the black list and the boycott as contrary to the spirit of American institutions.

HOLDUP ON A TRAIN.

Five Masked Men Rob Three Others
Near Hudson, Wis.

Hudson, Wis., Aug. 29.—A genuine case of holdup occurred on freight train No. 83, bound for St. Paul. Fred Russler, Rubin Keller and Leo Keller, all of Prairie du Sac, Wis., were in a box car going to Montana. At Eau Claire five young men dressed in dark clothes and slouch hats got into the car and said they were going to St. Paul. Shortly after the train left Knapp one of the men lit a candle and each of the five held revolvers on the three men from Prairie du Sac, two of whom were in one end of the car among some machinery and the other opposite them.

The five had handkerchiefs around their faces below their eyes and gave their orders like old hands. The sum of $54 was taken from the boys, together with two gold watches and chains.

Sheriff Bell left for Knapp in the morning to hunt down the robbers. The young men went on to Minneapolis, having enjoyed a breakfast on $1 which was handed back to Leo Keller by one of the robbers.

EMPRESS FREDERICK'S WILL.

Each of Her Six Children Receives a Million Marks.

Hamburg, Aug. 29.—The will of the late Dowager Empress Frederick was opened without special ceremony during the day. Her fortune totals 11,000,000 marks. Her six children receive 1,000,000 each. The youngest, Princess Margaret of Hesse (wife of Prince Frederick Charles of Hesse), also which gets Frederick's castle, on which the dowager empress spent the sum of 3,000,000 marks, a bequest which she received from the late Countess Galliera. The dowager empress destroyed only her most private papers. The remainder were deposited in the Frederickshof library. The fortune of the dowager empress included nothing from the late Queen Victoria, the dowager empress having renounced all claims on her mother's estate.

Count von Seckendorff under the will receives numerous valuable tokens of the esteem in which he was held by the late empress dowager. He will quit the service of the court and retire into private life.

SUPERIOR IS SUED.

Bondholders Want Their Money Back
With Interest.

West Superior, Wis., Aug. 29.—Sult started in the United States court at La Crosse will test the character and validity of in the neighborhood of $700,000 worth of bonds of the city of Superior. The suit is brought by Samuel J. King of the state of New York by his attorney, Phillip Kling. He sues for the principal and interest on bonds that were issued for special improvement purposes in 1891, which have become due through a failure of the city to pay interest.

The contention of the city in fighting the case will be that the bonds are not a general lien upon the city, but that they are for special street improvements and are a lien only on the property which was benefited by the improvements. This question has once been decided. The test case was that of Fowler against the city, which went to the supreme court. The same bonds at issue at that time and the point raised was the same one. The decision of the supreme court then was to the effect that the bonds were a general lien upon the city. The present case will be another test of the matter.

Believes Strike Will Be Settled.

Columbus, O., Aug. 29.—Secretary John Bishop of the state board of arbitration has returned from Pittsburg. Negotiations were under way, he said, for a conference between the officials of the steel corporation and the Amalgamated Association, at which he believed a settlement would be effected.

Samuel H. Sedgwick Named for Supreme Court Justice.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 29.—Republicans of Nebraska in state convention nominated a ticket, adopted a platform in harmony with party policies and made a new record for industry in the disposal of the business.

The ticket is as follows: Justice of the supreme court, Samuel H. Sedgwick of York county; regents of the university, Carl J. Ernst of Lancaster, H. L. Gould of Keith.

The platform commends to the judgment of the people the policies and achievements of the national administration, which have brought about unprecedented prosperity and has changed the nation from a debtor to a creditor of the world. It praises the successful conduct of the war with Spain, adding new glory to the flag. It notes the "suppression of a wicked and unjustifiable conspiracy and insurrection against the sovereignty of our nation in the Philippines and establishing there the principles upon which the popular government and equality of right depend." It also notes the lead taken by the United States in the settlement of difficulties in China, which "adds new lustre to the brilliant history of American diplomacy." The right of labor to organize is recognized. It deprecates the black list and the boycott as contrary to the spirit of American institutions.

HOLDUP ON A TRAIN.

Five Masked Men Rob Three Others
Near Hudson, Wis.

Hudson, Wis., Aug. 29.—A genuine case of holdup occurred on freight train No. 83, bound for St. Paul. Fred Russler, Rubin Keller and Leo Keller, all of Prairie du Sac, Wis., were in a box car going to Montana. At Eau Claire five young men dressed in dark clothes and slouch hats got into the car and said they were going to St. Paul. Shortly after the train left Knapp one of the men lit a candle and each of the five held revolvers on the three men from Prairie du Sac, two of whom were in one end of the car among some machinery and the other opposite them.

The five had handkerchiefs around their faces below their eyes and gave their orders like old hands. The sum of $54 was taken from the boys, together with two gold watches and chains.

Sheriff Bell left for Knapp in the morning to hunt down the robbers. The young men went on to Minneapolis, having enjoyed a breakfast on $1 which was handed back to Leo Keller by one of the robbers.

The fortune of the dowager empress included nothing from the late Queen Victoria, the dowager empress having renounced all claims on her mother's estate.

SUPERIOR IS SUED.

Bondholders Want Their Money Back
With Interest.

West Superior, Wis., Aug. 29.—Suit started in the United States court at La Crosse will test the character and validity of in the neighborhood of $700,000 worth of bonds of the city of Superior. The suit is brought by Samuel J. King of the state of New York by his attorney, Phillip King. He sues for the principal and interest on bonds that were issued for improvement purposes in 1891, which have become due through a failure of the city to pay interest.

The contention of the city in fighting the case will be that the bonds are not a general lien upon the city, but that they are for special street improvements and are a lien only on the property which was benefited by the improvements. This question has once been decided. The test case was that of Fowler against the city, which went to the supreme court. The same bonds at issue at that time and the point raised was the same one. The decision of the supreme court then was to the effect that the bonds were a general lien upon the city. The present case will be another test of the matter.

HER BOILER EXPLODES

THE CITY OF TRENTON TOTALLY
WRECKED NEAR TORRESDALE, PA.

FIRE ADDS TO THE HORROR

Vessel Quickly Run Ashore and Sinks
In Shallow Water—Eleven Bodies
Have Been Recovered and It Is
Feared More of Her Passengers and Crew Are in the Boat—Cause of the Disaster Unknown.

Philadelphia, Aug. 29.—While the steamboat City of Trenton of the Wilmington Steamboat company was on her way from this city to Trenton, N. J., her port boiler exploded, killing eleven persons and injuring over a score of others. Four passengers are missing, but as many were taken care of by friends it is thought the missing are among those who did not find it necessary to go to the hospitals.

After the explosion the boat took fire and ran aground. There she lies a wrecked and blackened bulk in the marshes opposite Torresdale, six miles above this city. Her hull is filled with water and it is feared more of her crew and passengers may be found at the bottom of the boat when the water is pumped out.

A boat belonging to the police department is anchored a short distance from the stranded excursion steamer pumping the water from the ill-fated vessel, and members of the police force are on shore ready to send any bodies that may be found to the morgue in this city. The City of Trenton made daily trips between Philadelphia and Trenton, stopping at Burlington, N. J., Bristol, Pa., and other points on the way. She left the company's wharf at 1:45 p. m., 15 minutes behind her schedule time.

Nothing of moment occurred until the boat reached Torresdale, at a point opposite what is known as the Harrison mansion, fronting on the Delaware river at this suburban resort, the steamship connecting with the port boiler.

Burst With a Loud Report.

The forward portion of the upper deck was well filled with passengers, while many others were in the cabin. Before any of the passengers or employees had an opportunity for seeking places of safety another explosion occurred and this time the port boiler was rent in twain. Scalding steam and water poured into the cabin and sections of the woodwork of the boat were torn away by the force of the explosion. Those of the passengers who were not seamed and scarred by the scalding steam and boiling water were struck by the flying portions of the splintered cabin. Legs and arms were broken and faces and bodies were parboiled. The screams of the injured could be heard on shore and the cries of those who leaped and were blown into the river were heartrending.

So great was the force of the explosion that a piano in the upper drawing room of the boat was hurled many feet away from the boat into the river. This proved a fortunate circumstance, for many of the injured passengers, thrown into the water, scalded and otherwise injured so that they were rendered helpless, clung to the piano, which had fallen into shallow water, until rescued.

Quickly Ran Ashore.

When the explosions occurred Mate Vanderveer and Pilot Curry were in the pilot house. Both were hurt, but the terrific force of the explosion in the little enclosure. The wheel on the port side began revolving with lightning like rapidity. As a result of this the rudder turned the boat toward shore and she quickly ran ashore, fastening herself in the mud. By this time the vessel had caught fire and those of the passengers who were still on board were compelled to leap for their lives. Fortunately the water was not more than four feet deep and many of the victims of the disaster were able to wade to shore. Some, however, who were too seriously injured to help themselves, were rescued by members of the boat crew, whose houses line the river front at this point. The captain and crew of the boat conducted themselves as heroes. They rendered all the assistance possible to the injured and Captain Worrell was the last man to leave the boat. All of the seriously injured were hastily conveyed to the hospital at the house of correction at Hillside, about three miles below Torresdale.

Just what caused the explosion cannot be determined at this time.

AN UNUSUAL REQUEST.

Indians Want Their Reservation
Opened to Public Settlement.

Duluth, Aug. 29.—The Indians of the Fond du Lac reservation, near this city, are asking that the reservation be opened to public settlement. There are about 100,000 acres in this reserve and about 700 Chippewa Indians live there. Nearly every family has taken land in severalty and the reds are living like white men and citizens. It is this that has caused them to make the unusual request that their lands be opened to the whites. All their pine timber has been cut and there is nothing left but hard woods and cedar. In order that their severalty lands be fit for cultivation they must be cleared, but under the law the Indians are unable to sell any of this timber. They cannot, therefore, clear the lands and make farms.

Roosevelt Children Leave Hospital.

New York, Aug. 29.—Alice and Quentin Roosevelt, children of Vice President Roosevelt, who have been sick at Roosevelt hospital, are so much better that they were removed to the home in this city of Douglass Robinson, brother-in-law of Mr. Roosevelt. The vice president and Mrs. Roosevelt are also there.

ASK FOR DAMAGES.

Passengers on the Islander Sue the Navigation Company.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 29.—Nearly two score cases against the Canadian Pacific Navigation company in connection with the wreck of the steamer Islander have been instituted for damages by loss of life, property and injury to health. The cases will be presented in the United States court, which is presumed to have jurisdiction. The cases involve only those who were citizens or natives of the United States.

Peruvian Cabinet Boycotted.

Lima, Peru, Aug. 29.—In the Peruvian senate a motion to impeach the cabinet was defeated by one vote. The cabinet is now boycotted by the chamber of deputies, while the conflict as to the censure passed upon the cabinet continues between that body and the senate.

KEPT IT UP TO THE LAST

M. CONSTANS' STORY OF THE
SULTAN'S ATTEMPTS TO PREVARICATE.

FRANCE'S ACT NECESSARY

Any Other Course Would Be Most Injurious to Future Negotiations. Slightest Success Would Encourage Him to Try the Same Game With Other Powers—The Minister's Real Reason.

London, Aug. 29.—The Daily Mail publishes a dispatch from its Vienna correspondent, who boarded the Orient express and interviewed M. Constans as to the Franco-Turkish diplomatic situation.

"The French ambassador declared," says the correspondent, "that even at the last hour the sultan tried to prevaricate. He asserted that the whole matter was now in the hands of the French government."

"Any other than an inexorable attitude," continued M. Constans, "would be most injurious to future negotiations with the porte. If Turkey could obtain the slightest success in this case she would easily yield to the temptation to try the same game with other powers who might not display the same patience as France has displayed."

"Before M. Constans left Constantinople," says a dispatch to The Standard from the Turkish capital, "he received a letter from the sultan himself begging him to consider his majesty's feelings and not to act in a manner his majesty thought uncalled for. M. Constans declined to alter his decision."

"The British ambassador was invited to the French embassy Sunday night and he remained there until 1 a. m. Monday morning, presumably trying to arrange an amicable settlement. It is freely remarked here that the real reason for the action of M. Constans was his pique at the refusal of the sultan to buy the quays."

GETTING READY TO FIGHT.

Sultan Said to Be Preparing for a
War With France.

Vienna, Aug. 29.—The Tageblatt's Constantinople correspondent says the sultan has declared that he is ready to face a war with France.

The porte, says the correspondent, has ordered 300 German guns for the defense of Salonica and other ports and has ordered the laying of mines in the approaches to the harbors. The sultan, the correspondent asserts, is day and night planning defenses.

GETS LIFE IMPRISONMENT.

An Alabama Farmer Tried for Lynching
a Negro.

Wetumpka, Ala., Aug. 29.—George Howard has been convicted of murder in the first degree and sentenced to life imprisonment. Howard was a member of the gang which lynched Robert White, a negro, in this county some months ago.

The case was called and a jury was soon impaneled. Upon being sworn Howard related the details of the lynching, admitting his participation therein. He gave the names of the members of the mob, which numbered 13. After being out almost two hours the jury returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree and fixed the penalty at life imprisonment.

Howard is one of the most prominent farmers in this section of the country. White was accused of shooting at a white man.

The cases against John Strength and Martin Fuller, accused of being members of this mob, are now being tried. All others who are alleged to have been members of the mob have left the country.

TO REVISE CONFESSION.

Committee Representing Presbyterian
Assembly Meets at Saratoga.

Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 29.—The committee on the revision of the Westminster confession of faith, representing the general assembly of the Presbyterian church, convened here during the day. Rev. Dr. Minton of San Francisco, who was the moderator of the last general assembly, will preside at the committee's deliberations. In the hands of the three sub-committees were formally placed the separate branches of the subjects assigned them by the general assembly. While the sub-committees may be able to submit their reports or findings as early as next Saturday it is doubtful if they can do so until early next week.

BEATEN BY ROBBERS.

An Aged Couple Near Kilbourn, Wis.,
Roughly Handled.

Baraboo, Wis., Aug. 29.—About 3 a. m. masked robbers entered the house of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lange, who reside near Kilbourn, for the purpose of plunder. They awoke the aged couple, who were alone, and demanded their money. Upon being refused the robbers threatened death, but in the meantime Mrs. Lange managed to escape from the house and gave an alarm. The burglars pounded Mr. Lange until he became unconscious and then left in a carriage drawn by a pair of white horses.

PRESIDENT BURNS' PLAN.

Would Let Men Like Ireland, Potter
and Low Settle the Strike.

Pittsburg, Aug. 29.—Another scheme to settle the steel strike has been launched by President Burns of the Window Glass Workers' association. Mr. Burns proposes an arbitration commission selected from among such men as Archbishop Ireland, Bishop Potter, Seth Low and others of like bulk, who would have the entire matter presented to them by both sides to the controversy, and should have power to settle upon terms for a settlement, their decision to be final. Mr. Burns says he has President Shaffer's sanction to the movement, and if the steel corporation people will agree to the plan the strike will be off at once.

President Shaffer said that the strike, notwithstanding the other side's claims to the contrary, is proceeding satisfactorily and the strike is making serious inroads into the corporation's business and that sooner or later it will be forced to terms. His men are firm all along the line and are determined to stand for their rights. He says the few mills that have been started are doing little effective work. The fact that the corporation is adding to its force daily is not worrying the association, as he believes them to be unskilled or poor workmen who will be a drawback rather than a help to the employers. He said no products were being turned out of the mills at work. Actions, he said, speak louder than words.

The latest official announcement from the steel corporation is that the strike can only be settled by the men going back to work. The steel officials say the strike is over so far as dealings with the Amalgamated Association is concerned. They want men for their idle mills and men who want work can have it at the highest wages paid before the shutdown. Whether they have men or not the union can have no say as to the rate of wages.

USED HIS PEN FREELY.

Young Man Finds Some Victims in this City and they Are Worked Plenty.

On Monday a dapper looking young fellow came to this city from Little Falls and put up at one of the best hotels in the city and started in to make some friends. He succeeded quite well from all accounts but there are those in the city who perhaps wish that they never had met him.

He carried a check book and began to get checks cashed drawn on the First National Bank, of Little Falls. He gave his name as H. I. Hamilton and signed that name to the checks. He seemed like a pretty good fellow and when he asked J. A. VanDyck if he would cash a check, he was told that he could have the money. After cashing the check Mr. VanDyck looked it over and saw that it was drawn rather peculiarly and went at once and telephoned Little Falls regarding the matter. He was told that no man by the name of H. I. Hamilton had an account there. He at once went over to the Arlington, and found mister man and demanded that he dig up. The man did so. He left town Tuesday and on that evening he was arrested at Staples and taken to Little Falls at the instance of several Staples business men. Since leaving the city it has been learned that several in this city were worked into cashing his checks, but he found Mr. VanDyck one too many for him.

The young man's real name has been found to be Henry Parmanter.

St. Cloud Doctor Held to the Grand Jury For not Reporting a Smallpox Case.

Dr. R. I. Hubert was held to the grand jury in $200 bonds this afternoon by Justice Limperich on the charge of wilful failure to report a case of smallpox. He promptly furnished the bond of $200 required with F. E. Kreutz and Martin Molitor as sureties.

Dr. J. B. Dunn, the city physician, followed Herman Mueller on the stand yesterday. Dr. Dunn is the complainant in the case and he gave his testimony very clearly, declaring that Jos. Wegler, when he examined him late in July, showed very plainly that he had suffered from discrete smallpox. It was evidenced by the impingement of the skin, that there were perfectly developed symptoms. A physician of ordinary intelligence would know that the man had had smallpox.—St. Cloud Journal-Press.

Deputy Game Warden Saunders

Made a Clever Catch Yesterday Evening.

BEFORE JUDGE MANTOR TO-DAY

They Paid Twenty Dollars Apiece

For the Chickens Besides Costs.

Last night Deputy Game Warden Saunders made a very clever capture of two men who, it was thought had been violating the game laws for sometime and they were brought to this city and it proved a rather expensive luxury before they got through with the deal.

There names are Walter Canfield and Arthur Hutchins, the former being a resident of Little Falls and the latter having lived for sometime at Crow Wing. The deputy had been informed that there was some shooting going on about Crow Wing and he went down last night. He had the pleasure, not only of capturing them, but they were caught with the game in their hands. They had two prairie chickens.

The charge of having game shot out of season in their possession was made against them and this morning they had a hearing before Judge Mantor. Both men plead guilty to the charge and the judge fined them each $20 and costs. They have paid the fine.

The deputy warden confiscated the guns belonging to the young men.

USED HIS PEN FREELY.

Young Man Finds Some Victims in this City and they Are Worked Plenty.

On Monday a dapper looking young fellow came to this city from Little Falls and put up at one of the best hotels in the city and started in to make some friends. He succeeded quite well from all accounts but there are those in the city who perhaps wish that they never had met him.

He carried a check book and began to get checks cashed drawn on the First National Bank, of Little Falls. He gave his name as H. I. Hamilton and signed that name to the checks. He seemed like a pretty good fellow and when he asked J. A. VanDyck if he would cash a check, he was told that he could have the money. After cashing the check Mr. VanDyck looked it over and saw that it was drawn rather peculiarly and went at once and telephoned Little Falls regarding the matter. He was told that no man by the name of H. I. Hamilton had an account there. He at once went over to the Arlington, and found mister man and demanded that he dig up. The man did so. He left town Tuesday and on that evening he was arrested at Staples and taken to Little Falls at the instance of several Staples business men. Since leaving the city it has been learned that several in this city were worked into cashing his checks, but he found Mr. VanDyck one too many for him.

The young man's real name has been found to be Henry Parmanter.

USED HIS PEN FREELY.

Young Man Finds Some Victims in this City and they Are Worked Plenty.

On Monday a dapper looking young fellow came to this city from Little Falls and put up at one of the best hotels in the city and started in to make some friends. He succeeded quite well from all accounts but there are those in the city who perhaps wish that they never had met him.

He carried a check book and began to get checks cashed drawn on the First National Bank, of Little Falls. He gave his name as H. I. Hamilton and signed that name to the checks. He seemed like a pretty good fellow and when he asked J. A. VanDyck if he would cash a check, he was told that he could have the money. After cashing the check Mr. VanDyck looked it over and saw that it was drawn rather peculiarly and went at once and telephoned Little Falls regarding the matter. He was told that no man by the name of H. I. Hamilton had an account there. He at once went over to the Arlington, and found mister man and demanded that he dig up. The man did so. He left town Tuesday and on that evening he was arrested at Staples and taken to Little Falls at the instance of several Staples business men. Since leaving the city it has been learned that several in this city were worked into cashing his checks, but he found Mr. VanDyck one too many for him.

The young man's real name has been found to be Henry Parmanther.

VIOLATORS ARE QUICKLY NABBED.

Deputy Game Warden Saunders Made a Clever Catch Yesterday Evening.

BEFORE JUDGE MANTOR TO-DAY

They Paid Twenty Dollars Apiece For the Chickens Besides Costs.

Last night Deputy Game Warden Saunders made a very clever capture of two men who, it was thought had been violating the game laws for sometime and they were brought to this city and it proved a rather expensive luxury before they got through with the deal.

There names are Walter Canfield and Arthur Hutchins, the former being a resident of Little Falls and the latter having lived for sometime at Crow Wing. The deputy had been informed that there was some shooting going on about Crow Wing and he went down last night. He had the pleasure, not only of capturing them, but they were caught with the game in their hands. They had two prairie chickens.

The charge of having game shot out of season in their possession was made against them and this morning they had a hearing before Judge Mantor. Both men plead guilty to the charge and the judge fined them each $20 and costs. They have paid the fine.

The deputy warden confiscated the guns belonging to the young men.

WAS A VICTIM OF KIDNAPPERS.

Editor Cox, of the Arena, Forcibly Carried into Country Last Night.

CASE OF TAR AND FEATHERS.

After Applying the Tar He is Allowed to Walk Home Unmolested.

One of the most daring incidents for some time was perpetrated last night when three men, with false beards, and painted faces, and armed to the teeth, made a rather hasty call at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. McCullough on Eighth street and kidnapped W. S. Cox, editor of the Arena, of this city. It took a strong nerve to carry out the plans made but the men seemed to be composed of the fabric that knows no limit.

Cox with a friend by the name of F. E. Stout, of the auditing department of the Minnesota & International had gone to the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. McCullough to call on Miss Onolee McCullough and Miss Mary Nye, who had come in from the lake yesterday morning. Mr. McCullough had left for the lake a few minutes before and no one was in the house at the time. The young ladies were going to be driven out to the lake and where about ready to start. The two gentlemen, Mr. Cox and Mr. Stout, with the two young ladies were seated on the porch within the screen enclosure at the McCullough residence. Two men came up the walk toward the house and when they stepped inside the screen and drew their revolvers it was considered a joke by the quartette, but when the men were seen to wear false beards and when their revolvers were thrust into the faces of the two young ladies as well as the young men, it was realized that it was no joking matter. One large man grabbed Cox around the waist and carried him out toward the road where there was a wagon in readiness to carry him away.

Mr. Stout stepped in to interfere and as he did so he was dealt a severe blow on the head with a revolver which stunned him for a few minutes. By the time he recovered from the shock the team with Editor Cox aboard was speeding away down the street at a terrific gait. Mr. Stout went down town at once and gave the alarm and got his wound dressed.

Everyone seemed to be in a quandary as to the direction that the men pursued with the team. Some thought that they had gone west and others thought that they had gone down past the cemetery and turned east.

There were many suppositions as to what the men would do with the editor, but all these were quieted when the gentleman calmly showed up at his room about 11:30 o'clock. The occurrence happened about 10 o'clock and the time passed so rapidly that it seemed almost like a miracle that the thing occurred at all.

When the men were reconnoitering about the house they were all separated for a time, but when they walked up to the door of the residence to get the editor one man jumped from the rig and the other one seemed to approach from another direction. One was a very tall man and the other two were small men. Mr. Cox states that when they came on the porch not a word was spoken, and in fact during the whole proceedings the only word spoken was when the men were on their way out one man said, "Don't hurt him."

They tied a large bandana handkerchief about his eyes and he could not tell what streets they took in going out, but it is thought that they went out the way of the cemetery. The spot where they took Mr. Cox was in a dense strip of forest to the east of the Brainerd Lumber Company mill. Here they had several cans of tar and they at once proceeded to business. The big man held Cox's arms back of him while the other two men poured the tar over his head. There were some feathers in the tar, and for a time the editor states that he did not know but that he might get a real good tar and feathering. They left him alone after the work was done and never uttered a word. They rode back to town and Cox was obliged to walk all the way.

Upon arriving at his room Mr. Cox got a preparation and started to wash his hair and then went over to see his friend, F. E. Stout. Mr.

Stout was surprised to see him back so soon, but he looked a great deal worse hurt than did the real captive of the episode.

ON THE OUTSKIRTS

Posse of Men In The City Looking For Murderers of John McGrath-- On Their Track

Some of the men connected with the posse of men sent out by Sheriff Tanner of Little Falls, in pursuit of the three men who are wanted on the charge of killing John McGrath in a box car near Lincoln, on the cutoff, are in the city today and they confidently believe that before another twenty-four hours passes the men will have been captured.

Governor Van Sant has increased the reward and now it is $600 instead of $300. The men are thought to be camping around the outskirts of the city and the posse of men from Little Falls, accompanied by Sheriff Erickson, went out this afternoon to do some skirmishing.

The men are known to have left Fort Ripley yesterday. They have followed the main line almost directly as far as they have come between Fort Ripley and Brainerd. At several farm houses along the way they have stopped for lunch or to get a drink of milk. It is known positively that they ate their dinner yesterday within twelve miles of the city. They have been tracked within four miles of the city and it is understood that a farmer saw three men lying in the woods by the road side about two miles from the city that answered the description of the three men.

DEFOREST-LORENTZ

Nuptials Celebrated Last Night at The Rectory of St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Last night Mr. J. S. DeForest was united in marriage to Miss Estelle May Lorentz, Rev. Roderick J. Mooney, of St. Paul's Episcopal church, officiating. The wedding ceremony occurred at the rectory of the church shortly after 9 o'clock. This was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary Lorentz. Only immediate relatives of the family witnessed the ceremony.

At the home the wedding supper was a sumptuous affair, the decorations in the dining room being particularly attractive and neat. Cut flowers of all descriptions were used in profusion in the room. From a central point in the room smilax was strung to the four corners of the table and the scene was a delightful one.

The bride wore a gown made of tan batiste, trimmed with silk mull and Arabian lace. She carried in her hand a shower bouquet of white roses. Miss Bertha Stadel was maid of honor and she wore a gown made of pongee net, trimmed with white chiffon and panne velvet. She carried a shower bouquet of yellow roses. The going away gown of the bride was made of brown broadcloth with panne velvet trimmings.

The bride is a charming young lady of the city and has a large circle of friends who will wish her joy through life. The bridegroom is a popular young business man of the city. He was attended by J. Willard Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. DeForest left last night for Minneapolis. They will leave there Friday for Muscatine, Ia., the old home of the bridegroom, for a short visit. They expect to take in the Pan-American exposition before returning to the city. They will be at home at 320, Fourth street north after October 10.

WILL BE BRISK.

The Twin City and Duluth Wholesalers Will Follow Lumbermen Closely.

A RICH COUNTRY UP NORTH.

Some of the Best Land in the State Along the Proposed M. & I. Line.

It seems that the opening up of the northern Minnesota region by the construction of the Minnesota & International is drawing the attention of the wholesalers of Duluth and the Twin Cities and they will follow closely the lumbermen into the regions above mentioned, and there will be a great hustle for the trade. That the road being constructed will be a good thing for Brainerd and the other towns along the line there is not much doubt.

Immigration into the region to the northward of Bemidji has been very heavy during the past eight months and it is said that hundreds of homesteads have been opened along the route of the road. Stations have already been established from Bemidji clear to Koochiching and townships laid out. There is bound to be business where there is such an influx of settlers. So far it is claimed that the Minnesota & International company's work has been of the most benefit to the counties of Aitkin and Cass. The development of both counties means a great deal to Duluth.

The Minneapolis papers hold that the opening of the new country should mean as much to Minneapolis as to Duluth, and that the new road is one that Minneapolis needs and one that should be utilized to the fullest extent. The new road starts from Brainerd, and Brainerd is 119 miles from Duluth and 127 miles from Minneapolis.

The development of northern Minnesota first as a lumbering country and afterwards as an agricultural country is going on clear up to the boundary east of Red Lake and west of the iron ranges, in general, but particularly along the line of the new road.

Rails have been laid on the new road fourteen miles east of Bemidji, and a regular tri-weekly train service has been inaugurated to Turtle Lake station. A contract was let for forty-one miles of construction work this season and the railroad company tried to let contracts for fifteen miles more but none of the contractors would accept the work because of the scarcity of labor. It is not likely that the grade will be far enough along to permit the laying of steel this season much beyond Blackduck, a new town on the proposed line and about twenty-five miles west of Bemidji.

Timberman and land lookers who are acquainted with the nature of the country in the Rainy River valley region claim that inside the next ten years it will be one of the best agricultural regions of the state. The climate is milder than that to either the east or south, and it is said that there has never been a drouth in the region.

The Minnesota & International road is expected to be completed northward to Koochiching by next year where it will connect with the new line of the Canadian Northern from Port Arthur to Winnipeg, and the new country will have an outlet to Manitoba and Lake Superior as well as to Duluth and the Twin Cities. The contractors on the new road are already constructing branch logging roads, the longest of which will be that from Turtle Lake north to Nebish to connect with a 12-mile logging road from Red Lake, that was recently transferred by the Halvorson & Richards company to the Northern Pacific company.

Red Lake is the largest body of water wholly in Minnesota and has an area of about 500 square miles. It lies in a wilderness now. The estimates of timbermen place the amount of timber available along the first twelve miles of the new road at 1,000,000,000 feet, and it will take the railroad company about five years to get it out.

The new railroad construction is booming Bemidji and the town is growing rapidly. Duluth is 181 miles from Bemidji, while Minneapolis is 219 miles. When the new road is completed, it will be 309 miles from Minneapolis to Koochiching and but 271 miles from Duluth to Koochiching. Thus Duluth will have the advantage in the matter of a shorter haul. Then, too, it takes half a day to travel from Duluth to Bemidji, while it takes a day's travel from Minneapolis to the same point. The trade in the opposite directions is also half a day and a whole day respectively.

Men conversant with the conditions in the new country now being opened up predict that it will be a struggle for supremacy of trade between the Twin City and the head of the lakes wholesalers.

H. P. Dullum came very near being the victim of a highway robbery last Saturday night. About 8 o'clock as he was returning home from Brainerd near the Alex Cameron farm a man jumped from the brush and caught one of the horses by the bridle, but they were high-spirited and started on the run throwing Mr. Robber to the ground. He then got up and sent a bullet so close to Mr. Dullum's head as to make one of his ears feel very funny. Had the would be robber been successful he would have secured about $60. This is the same place where two highwaymen tried to fill Mr. Dullum full of lead with Winchester rifles several years ago.

ON THE DIAMOND.

The Willmars and Toozes, of Minneapolis, have been secured to play two games of base ball at St. Cloud, one next Sunday and another on Monday—Labor Day. These teams are evenly matched and good ball should result.

The Toozes wanted to come to Brainerd for a game on Sunday, but Manager Lagerquist, of the local team, had already made arrangements with the St. Cloud team. It was thought that the Toozes could be secured for Labor Day but they could not come.

In case St. Cloud makes arrangements for the game between the local Elk team and the team of Elk players from that city at a harvest festival to be held down at St. Cloud, Manager Canan will doubtless strengthen his team considerable and the boys will go down to win.

Manager Lagerquist has made arrangements for two games with St. Cloud, one on Sunday and the other on Monday. Aitkin could not be secured for a game on Labor Day, as had been advertised, so St. Cloud will stay over after the game Sunday and play the game with the locals.

Yesterday some of the local base ball fans met E. A. Zaver on the platform of the N. P. depot. He is from Aitkin and of course could not refrain from mentioning ball. He wanted to know how base ball was here, whereupon an offer was made to play the local team with Aitkin for the $500 side bet. He said he did not have the price with him, even for forfeit, but he handed the boys a quarter and told them to go and get a drink.

Just received a large assortment of men's fall shoes. All the new things out. Look them over. LINNEMAN & CARLSON.

WAS A VICTIM OF KIDNAPPERS.

Editor Cox, of the Arena, Forcibly Carried into Country Last Night.

CASE OF TAR AND FEATHERS.

After Applying the Tar He is Allowed to Walk Home Unmolested.

One of the most daring incidents for some time was perpetrated last night when three men, with false beards, and painted faces, and armed to the teeth, made a rather hasty call at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. McCullough on Eighth street and kidnapped W. S. Cox, editor of the Arena, of this city. It took a strong nerve to carry out the plans made but the men seemed to be composed of the fabric that knows no limit.

Cox with a friend by the name of F. E. Stout, of the auditing department of the Minnesota & International had gone to the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. McCullough to call on Miss Onolee McCullough and Miss Mary Nye, who had come in from the lake yesterday morning. Mr. McCullough had left for the lake a few minutes before and no one was in the house at the time. The young ladies were going to be driven out to the lake and where about ready to start. The two gentlemen, Mr. Cox and Mr. Stout, with the two young ladies were seated on the porch within the screen enclosure at the McCullough residence. Two men came up the walk toward the house and when they stepped inside the screen and drew their revolvers it was considered a joke by the quartette, but when the men were seen to wear false beards and when their revolvers were thrust into the faces of the two young ladies as well as the young men, it was realized that it was no joking matter. One large man grabbed Cox around the waist and carried him out toward the road where there was a wagon in readiness to carry him away.

Mr. Stout stepped in to interfere and as he did so he was dealt a severe blow on the head with a revolver which stunned him for a few minutes. By the time he recovered from the shock the team with Editor Cox aboard was speeding away down the street at a terrific gait. Mr. Stout went down town at once and gave the alarm and got his wound dressed.

Everyone seemed to be in a quandry as to the direction that the men pursued with the team. Some thought that they had gone west and others thought that they had gone down past the cemetery and turned east.

There were many suppositions as to what the men would do with the editor, but all these were quieted when the gentleman calmly showed up at his room about 11:30 o'clock. The occurrence happened about 10 o'clock and the time passed so rapidly that it seemed almost like a miracle that the thing occurred at all.

When the men were reconnoitering about the house they were all separated for a time, but when they walked up to the door of the residence to get the editor one man jumped from the rig and the other one seemed to approach from another direction. One was a very tall man and the other two were small men. Mr. Cox states that when they came on the porch not a word was spoken, and in fact during the whole proceedings the only word spoken was when the men were on their way out one man said, "Don't hurt him."

They tied a large bandana handkerchief about his eyes and he could not tell what streets they took in going out, but it is thought that they went out the way of the cemetery. The spot where they took Mr. Cox was in a dense strip of forest to the east of the Brainerd Lumber Company mill. Here they had several cans of tar and they at once proceeded to business. The big man held Cox's arms back of him while the other two men poured the tar over his head. There were some feathers in the tar, and for a time the editor states that he did not know but that he might get a real good tar and feathering. They left him alone after the work was done and never uttered a word. They rode back to town and Cox was obliged to walk all the way.

Upon arriving at his room Mr. Cox got a preparation and started to wash his hair and then went over to see his friend, F. E. Stout. Mr.

Stout was surprised to see him back so soon, but he looked a great deal worse hurt than did the real captive of the episode.

ON THE OUTSKIRTS

Posse of Men In The City Looking For Murderers of John McGrath-- On Their Track

Some of the men connected with the posse of men sent out by Sheriff Tanner of Little Falls, in pursuit of the three men who are wanted on the charge of killing John McGrath in a box car near Lincoln, on the cutoff, are in the city today and they confidently believe that before another twenty-four hours passes the men will have been captured.

Governor Van Sant has increased the reward and now it is $600 instead of $300. The men are thought to be camping around the outskirts of the city and the posse of men from Little Falls, accompanied by Sheriff Erickson, went out this afternoon to do some skirmishing.

The men are known to have left Fort Ripley yesterday. They have followed the main line almost directly as far as they have come between Fort Ripley and Brainerd. At several farm houses along the way they have stopped for lunch or to get a drink of milk. It is known positively that they ate their dinner yesterday within twelve miles of the city. They have been tracked within four miles of the city and it is understood that a farmer saw three men lying in the woods by the road side about two miles from the city that answered the description of the three men.

DEFOREST-LORENTZ

Nuptials Celebrated Last Night at The Rectory of St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Last night Mr. J. S. DeForest was united in marriage to Miss Estelle May Lorentz, Rev. Roderick J. Mooney, of St. Paul's Episcopal church, officiating. The wedding ceremony occurred at the rectory of the church shortly after 9 o'clock. This was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary Lorentz. Only immediate relatives of the family witnessed the ceremony.

At the home the wedding supper was a sumptuous affair, the decorations in the dining room being particularly attractive and neat. Cut flowers of all descriptions were used in profusion in the room. From a central point in the room smilax was strung to the four corners of the table and the scene was a delightful one.

The bride wore a gown made of tan batiste, trimmed with silk mull and Arabian lace. She carried in her hand a shower bouquet of white roses. Miss Bertha Stade was maid of honor and she wore a gown made of pongee, trimmed with white chiffon and panne velvet. She carried a shower bouquet of yellow roses. The going away gown of the bride was made of brown broadcloth with panne velvet trimmings.

The bride is a charming young lady of the city and has a large circle of friends who will wish her joy through life. The bridegroom is a popular young business man of the city. He was attended by J. Willard Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. DeForest left last night for Minneapolis. They will leave there Friday for Muscatine, Ia., the old home of the bridegroom, for a short visit. They expect to take in the Pan-American exposition before returning to the city. They will be at home at 329, Fourth street north after October 10.

COMPETITION WILL BE BRISK.

The Twin City and Duluth Wholesalers Will Follow Lumbermen Closely.

A RICH COUNTRY UP NORTH.

Some of the Best Land in the State Along the Proposed M. & I. Line.

It seems that the opening up of the northern Minnesota region by the construction of the Minnesota & International is drawing the attention of the wholesalers of Duluth and the Twin Cities and they will follow closely the lumbermen into the regions above mentioned, and there will be a great hustle for the trade. That the road being constructed will be a good thing for Brainerd and the other towns along the line there is not much doubt.

Immigration into the region to the northward of Bemidji has been very heavy during the past eight months and it is said that hundreds of homesteads have been opened along the route of the road. Stations have already been established from Bemidji clear to Koochiching and towns laid out. There is bound to be business where there is such an influx of settlers. So far it is claimed that the Minnesota & International company's work has been of the most benefit to the counties of Aitkin and Cass. The development of both counties means a great deal to Duluth.

The Minneapolis papers hold that the opening of the new country should mean as much to Minneapolis as to Duluth, and that the new road is one that Minneapolis needs and one that should be utilized to the fullest extent. The new road starts from Brainerd, and Brainerd is 119 miles from Duluth and 127 miles from Minneapolis.

The development of northern Minnesota first as a lumbering country and afterwards as an agricultural country is going on clear up to the boundary east of Red Lake and west of the iron ranges, in general, but particularly along the line of the new road.

Rails have been laid on the new road fourteen miles east of Bemidji, and a regular tri-weekly train service has been inaugurated to Turtle Lake station. A contract was let for forty-one miles of construction work this season and the railroad company tried to let contracts for fifteen miles more but none of the contractors would accept the work because of the scarcity of labor. It is not likely that the grade will be far enough along to permit the laying of steel this season much beyond Blackduck, a new town on the proposed line and about twenty-five miles west of Bemidji.

Timberman and land lookers who are acquainted with the nature of the country in the Rainy River valley region claim that inside the next ten years it will be one of the best agricultural regions of the state. The climate is milder than that to either the east or south, and it is said that there has never been a drouth in the region.

The Minnesota & International road is expected to be completed northward to Koochiching by next year where it will connect with the new line of the Canadian Northern from Port Arthur to Winnipeg, and the new country will have an outlet to Manitoba and Lake Superior as well as to Duluth and the Twin Cities. The contractors on the new road are already constructing branch logging roads, the longest of which will be that from Turtle Lake north to Nebish to connect with a 12-mile logging road from Red Lake, that was recently transferred by the Halvorson & Richards company to the Northern Pacific company.

Red Lake is the largest body of water wholly in Minnesota and has an area of about 500 square miles. It lies in a wilderness now. The estimates of timbermen place the amount of timber available along the first twelve miles of the new road at 1,000,000,000 feet, and it will take the railroad company about five years to get it out.

The new railroad construction is booming Bemidji and the town is growing rapidly. Duluth is 181 miles from Bemidji, while Minneapolis is 219 miles. When the new road is completed, it will be 300 miles from Minneapolis to Koochiching and but 271 miles from Duluth to Koochiching. Thus Duluth will have the advantage in the matter of a shorter haul. Then, too, it takes half a day to travel from Duluth to Bemidji, while it takes a day's travel from Minneapolis to the same point. The trade in the opposite directions is also half a day and a whole day respectively.

Men conversant with the conditions in the new country now being opened up predict that it will be a struggle for supremacy of trade between the Twin City and the head of the lakes wholesalers.

H. P. Dullum came very near being the victim of a highway robbery last Saturday night. About 8 o'clock as he was returning home from Brainerd near the Alex Cameron farm a man jumped from the brush and caught one of the horses by the bridle, but they were high-spirited and started on the run throwing Mr. Robber to the ground. He then got up and sent a bullet so close to Mr. Dullum's head as to make one of his ears feel very funny. Had the would be robber been successful he would have secured about $60. This is the same place where two highwaymen tried to fill Mr. Dullum full of lead with Winchester rifles several years ago.

ON THE DIAMOND.

The Willmars and Toozes, of Minneapolis, have been secured to play two games of base ball at St. Cloud, one next Sunday and another on Monday—Labor Day. These teams are evenly matched and good ball should result.

The Toozes wanted to come to Brainerd for a game on Sunday, but Manager Lagerquist, of the local team, had already made arrangements with the St. Cloud team. It was thought that the Toozes could be secured for Labor Day but they could not come.

In case St. Cloud makes arrangements for the game between the local Elk team and the team of Elk players from that city at a harvest festival to be held down at St. Cloud, Manager Canan will doubtless strengthen his team considerable and the boys will go down to win.

Manager Lagerquist has made arrangements for two games with St. Cloud, one on Sunday and the other on Monday. Aitkin could not be secured for a game on Labor Day, as had been advertised, so St. Cloud will stay over after the game Sunday and play the game with the locals.

Yesterday some of the local base ball fans met E. A. Zover on the platform of the N. P. depot. He is from Aitkin and of course could not refrain from mentioning ball. He wanted to know how base ball was here, whereupon an offer was made to play the local team with Aitkin for the $500 side bet. He said he did not have the price with him, even for forfeit, but he handed the boys a quarter and told them to go and get a drink.

The climate is milder than that to either the east or south, and it is said that there has never been a drouth in the region.

The Minnesota & International road is expected to be completed northward to Koochiching by next year where it will connect with the new line of the Canadian Northern from Port Arthur to Winnipeg, and the new country will have an outlet to Manitoba and Lake Superior as well as to Duluth and the Twin Cities. The contractors on the new road are already constructing branch logging roads, the longest of which will be that from Turtle Lake north to Nebish to connect with a 12-mile logging road from Red Lake, that was recently transferred by the Halvorsen & Richards company to the Northern Pacific company.

Red Lake is the largest body of water wholly in Minnesota and has an area of about 500 square miles. It lies in a wilderness now. The estimates of timbermen place the amount of timber available along the first twelve miles of the new road at 1,000,000,000 feet, and it will take the railroad company about five years to get it out.

The new railroad construction is booming Bemidji and the town is growing rapidly. Duluth is 181 miles from Bemidji, while Minneapolis is 219 miles. When the new road is completed, it will be 309 miles from Minneapolis to Koochiching and but 271 miles from Duluth to Koochiching. Thus Duluth will have the advantage in the matter of a shorter haul. Then, too, it takes half a day to travel from Duluth to Bemidji, while it takes a day's travel from Minneapolis to the same point. The trade in the opposite directions is also half a day and a whole day respectively.

Men conversant with the conditions in the new country now being opened up predict that it will be a struggle for supremacy of trade between the Twin City and the head of the lakes wholesalers.

Can apples, plums, cherries, etc., be grown there? 3. Are the farmers well to do?'—Ans. 1. 14,250. 2. We have seen as fine specimens of fruits grown there as in other parts of the state, and cannot see why they may not be grown in liberal quantities. 3. They probably average with those of similar length of settlement.

H. P. Dullum came very near being the victim of a highway robbery last Saturday night. About 8 o'clock as he was returning home from Brainerd near the Alex Cameron farm a man jumped from the brush and caught one of the horses by the bridle, but they were high-spirited and started on the run throwing Mr. Robber to the ground. He then got up and sent a bullet so close to Mr. Dullum's head as to make one of his ears feel very funny. Had the would be robber been successful he would have secured about $60. This is the same place where two highwaymen tried to fill Mr. Dullum full of lead with Winchester rifles several years ago.

ON THE DIAMOND.

The Willmars and Tooze's, of Minneapolis, have been secured to play two games of base ball at St. Cloud, one next Sunday and another on Monday—Labor Day. These teams are evenly matched and good ball should result.

The Tooze's wanted to come to Brainerd for a game on Sunday, but Manager Lagerquist, of the local team, had already made arrangements with the St. Cloud team. It was thought that the Tooze's could be secured for Labor Day but they could not come.

In case St. Cloud makes arrangements for the game between the local Elk team and the team of Elk players from that city at a harvest festival to be held down at St. Cloud, Manager Canan will doubtless strengthen his team considerable and the boys will go down to win.

Manager Lagerquist has made arrangements for two games with St. Cloud, one on Sunday and the other on Monday. Aitkin could not be secured for a game on Labor Day, as had been advertised, so St. Cloud will stay over after the game Sunday and play the game with the locals.

Yesterday some of the local base ball fans met E. A. Zaver on the platform of the N. P. depot. He is from Aitkin and of course could not refrain from mentioning ball. He wanted to know how base ball was here, whereupon an offer was made to play the local team with Aitkin for the $500 side bet. He said he did not have the price with him, even for forfeit, but he handed the boys a quarter and told them to go and get a drink.

Preparations for Their Journey to Berlin Go Forward in Spite of Protests.

Berlin, Aug. 29.—While official circles still believe that Prince Chun, head of the Chinese special mission to Germany, is ill at Basle and will come to Berlin in a few days, The Lokal Anzeiger's Berne correspondent has interviewed Herr von Rauch, business manager of the mission, who says the delay was due to questions of formalities at the Berlin reception. Herr von Rauch, who is attached to the mission in behalf of the German government, is calmly preparing the traveling arrangements in spite of the fact that the Chinese state they may not be able to proceed to Berlin. Some of the minor Chinese officials objected to lodging on the fourth floor of the hotel, but Herr Rauch promptly intervened and compelled them to accept the quarters to which they had been assigned. Seeing that the lowest in rank of the members of the retinue are prominent nobles such coercion is not resented. Prince Chun has dropped his pretence of indisposition and is keeping up constant telegraphic communication with Peking. One cable message cost him $300. DENVER COMMANDERY FIRST.

Wins the Prize in the Competitive Knights Templar Drill.

Louisville, Aug. 29.—Colorado commandery No. 1 of Denver, before an admiring throng of 18,000 people and under the critical eyes of a board of judges composed of three regular army officers and a representative of the Knights Templar, captured first prize in the competition of drill teams from commanderies of knights. St. Bernard commandery No. 5 of Chicago, the favorite with the majority of spectators, captured second place, while Golden Gate No. 16 of San Francisco and Hanselman No. 16 of Cincinnati came in for third and fourth prizes respectively. California commandery No. 1, being the only mounted command, had no difficulty in capturing the trophy for the best appearance and drill on horseback.

What is known as the dependent membership question precipitated a hot fight at a meeting of the grand encampment. It ended in the encampment sustaining the ruling of Grand Master Lloyd. Briefly Sir Knight Lloyd holds that to be in good standing a Knight Templar must maintain his standing in both chapter and lodge.

JOYCE SACRIFICED.

Chicago Chief of Detectives Testifies in Expense Account Scandal.

Chicago, Aug. 29.—After both sides had concluded in the civil service investigation of the city detective bureau expense account scandal, Captain Luke P. Colleran, chief of detectives, at his own request, took the witness stand. The chief's testimony, while as a whole shielding the detective bureau, practically sacrificed Lieutenant Joyce, who is on trial. Colleran testified that if Joyce made out the expense account knowing Tracy was in Chicago and had never left for Cleveland, he was guilty of making an improper report, and if Joyce did not know the whereabouts of Tracy at the time in question, he was guilty of neglect of duty. Commissioner Powell asked the questions, which placed Colleran in a position where he had to sacrifice his lieutenant or bear the brunt of the neglect.

HAIL DOES DAMAGE.

Winnipeg Visited by the Worst Storm in Its History.

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 29.—The worst hail storm in the city's history occurred during the afternoon. For half an hour clouds of ice came down and the loss to merchants and others is placed at $50,000. The walls of a brick block on the corner of Main and Graham fell in, foundations were destroyed in other new structures and windows by the thousands were smashed. Banfield's big store on N. street, filled with light textures, curtains and laces, was flooded. Sewers backed up and cessars along the west side of Main street in the principal business section were inundated and valuable stocks destroyed. The district visited is small, the city getting the worst of it. Crops were all cut, but the flowers and foliage in the city parks in readiness for the Duke of Cornwall's visit were cut down clean.

Decline to Sell Their Fruit.

Kingston, Jamaica, Aug. 29.—The fruit situation on the north side of the island is becoming serious. A majority of growers decline to sell at the reduced price. Force is being used to prevent the minority taking bananas to the shipping quarters. Thousands have been threatened along the roadways. Extra police precaution has been taken and several persons arrested on the charge of coercion.

IN BAD CONDITION.

Boys Find Packages of Paper Money in an Omaha Lumber Yard.

Omaha, Aug. 29.—Three boys playing in a lumber yard at Ninth and Farnam streets found three packages of paper money, greenbacks and national bank notes, thought to aggregate $3,000 to $5,000. The packages were badly crusted with mold from exposure to the weather and they will require expert examination to determine the denomination of the bills. The money is believed to be that stolen from the Pacific Express company several years ago.

THE HANCOCK ARRIVES.

Congressman Hull of Iowa Among the Passengers.

San Francisco, Aug. 29.—The transport Hancock arrived from Manila during the day. Among the passengers on the Hancock were Congressman Hull of Iowa, his wife and daughter; Colonel A. S. Burt of the Twenty-fifth infantry, and Colonel Alexander Moore, retired.

The Hancock also brought 838 men and 27 officers of the Fourth cavalry, under command of Colonel C. C. Carr, 1117 discharged soldiers and 7 prisoners.

Dog Saves Family From Death.

Osage, Ia., Aug. 29.—Fire at 4 a. m. destroyed a residence belonging to Ida Johnston and occupied by John Morse, a blind music teacher. Loss about $2,500. A pet dog that was the means of arousing the family in time to escape was cremated.

Made Rich Find of Gold.

Victoria, B. C., Aug. 29.—Jones and Scott, miners who arrived by the Princess Louise from Cape Somorille, on the extremity of Vancouver island, have found black sand bearing gold and they took out $1,100 in two weeks.

Ex-Secretary Morton Buys a Paper.

Nebraska City, Neb., Aug. 29.—The Daily Tribune has been sold to the Morton Printing company, of which J. Sterling Morton, ex-secretary of agriculture is the head, and will be edited by him.

Killed by a Cave-In.

Silverton, Colo., Aug. 29.—In a cave-in at the North Star mine on King Solomon mountain Thomas Hodge, Edgar Tressinger and Gus Conrad were crushed to death.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

A strike has been declared in all the cotton mills in Columbia, S. C.

William R. Bigham of Kansas has been appointed consul general at Cape Town.

Secretary Gage will leave Washington next Monday for the West. He expects to be absent about a month.

DENVER COMMANDERY FIRST.

Wins the Prize in the Competitive Knights Templar Drill.

Louisville, Aug. 29.—Colorado commandery No. 1 of Denver, before an admiring throng of 18,000 people and under the critical eyes of a board of judges composed of three regular army officers and a representative of the Knights Templar, captured first prize in the competition of drill teams from commanderies of knights. St. Bernard commandery No. 5 of Chicago, the favorite with the majority of spectators, captured second place, while Golden Gate No. 16 of San Francisco and Hanselman No. 16 of Cincinnati came in for third and fourth prizes respectively. California commandery No. 1, being the only mounted command, had no difficulty in capturing the trophy for the best appearance and drill on horseback.

What is known as the dependent membership question precipitated a hot fight at a meeting of the grand encampment. It ended in the encampment sustaining the ruling of Grand Master Lloyd. Briefly Sir Knight Lloyd holds that to be in good standing a Knight Templar must maintain his standing in both chapter and lodge.

JOYCE SACRIFICED.

Chicago Chief of Detectives Testifies in Expense Account Scandal.

Chicago, Aug. 29.—After both sides had concluded in the civil service investigation of the city detective bureau expense account scandal, Captain Luke P. Collieran, chief of detectives, at his own request, took the witness stand. The chief's testimony, while as a whole shielding the detective bureau, practically sacrificed Lieutenant Joyce, who is on trial. Collieran testified that if Joyce made out the expense account knowing Tracy was in Chicago and had never left for Cleveland, he was guilty of making an improper report, and if Joyce did not know the whereabouts of Tracy at the time in question, he was guilty of neglect of duty. Commissioner Powell asked the questions, which placed Collieran in a position where he had to sacrifice his lieutenant or bear the brunt of the neglect.

HAIL DOES DAMAGE.

Winnipeg Visited by the Worst Storm in Its History.

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 29.—The worst hail storm in the city's history occurred during the afternoon. For half an hour clouds of ice came down and the loss to merchants and others is placed at $50,000. The walls of a brick block on the corner of Main and Graham fell in, foundations were destroyed in other new structures and windows by the thousands were smashed. Banfield's big store on Y street, filled with light textures, curtains and lace, was flooded. Kingston, Jamaica, Aug. 29.—The fruit situation on the north side of the island is becoming serious. A majority of growers decline to sell at the reduced price. Force is being used to prevent the minority taking bananas to the shipping quarters. Thousands have been threatened along the roadways. Extra police precaution has been taken and several persons arrested on the charge of coercion.

Preparations for Their Journey to Berlin Go Forward in Spite of Protests. Given Quarters on Fourth Floor of Hotel and Not Permitted to Leave the Building—Pretence of Illness Has Been Dropped.

Berlin, Aug. 29.—While official circles still believe that Prince Chun, head of the Chinese special mission to Germany, is ill at Basle and will come to Berlin in a few days, the Lokal Anzeiger's Berne correspondent has interviewed Herr von Rauch, business manager of the mission, who says the delay was due to questions of formalities at the Berlin reception. The immediate attendants of Prince Chun are decidedly indignant at their summary handling by the German officials. Herr von Rauch, who is attached to the mission in behalf of the German government, is calmly preparing the traveling arrangements in spite of the fact that the Chinese state they may not be able to proceed to Berlin. Some of the minor Chinese officials objected to lodging on the fourth floor of the hotel, but Herr Rauch promptly intervened and compelled them to accept the quarters to which they had been assigned. Seeing that the lowest in rank of the members of the retinue are prominent nobles such coercion is not relished. Prince Chun has dropped his pretence of indisposition and is keeping up constant telegraphic communication with Peking. One cable message cost him $300. The members of the Chinese mission are not permitted to leave the hotel. This, it is said, is due to the personal orders of Emperor William.

It is now generally conceded that the delay of the mission is due to the severe exactions of Emperor William in compliance with the expiation convention.
